Centennial Banquet

1874----1974

100 YEARS

Holy Name Cathedral stands as the symbol of the faith and hope of Chicago Catholics. The Cathedral was destroyed in the Chicago Fire of 1871. The size and beauty of this Gothic Cathedral are a tribute to the then few and poor Catholics of Chicago. The cornerstone was laid by Bishop Thomas Foley on July 19, 1874. The Cathedral thus celebrates its 100th anniversary this year. It was restored under John Cardinal Cody in 1968-69. The Cathedral stands on Chicago's Near North Side in an area that has had many periods of decay and prosperity. It is there as the symbol of Christ and the Church in good times and bad — its 210 foot spire reaching upward to our real hope — God.

My Dear Friends,

"Cathedrals impose a sense of confidence, of assurance, of peace." When the famed sculptor Rodin wrote these words about the Cathedrals of France, he could not have imagined how appropriate these same sentiments might be for the Centennial Year of the Cathedral Church of Chicago.

In its hundred years of existence, the present Cathedral of the Holy Name has fulfilled many roles. Pastorally, it has been and is a most active parish, serving a wide diversity of people. Judging from my experience, it is one of the most multi-faceted parishes in the world, called to serve a great variety of needs. It has been and is a source of spiritual power, specially blessed by the priests and religious who have provided 100 years of leadership and love. Architecturally, it has become a mainstay and precious jewel in the magnificent skyline of Chicago.

Lifting up out of the ashes of the Great Fire of 1871, this Cathedral Church represented the "I will" spirit of Chicago. Its spire reaches upwards on State Street as a symbol of confidence, assurance and peace for all who see it.

"A Cathedral," it has been said, "is a bond that unites us all, the pact of civilization." Grateful for the 100 years that Holy Name Cathedral has stood in our midst, a living expression of that bond between all men and women, we go forward into its second century with this prayer: May it always inspire confidence in those who see it; may it offer spiritual assurance to all who enter it; may it be a symbol and instrument of peace, of peace that the world cannot give.

+ John Card. Cody

Archbishop of Chicago

REVEREND TIMOTHY J. LYNE
Pastor of Holy Name Cathedral

My Dear Friends,

It is a pleasure to welcome you to our Centennial Dinner. I wish to express my gratitude to all of you for joining us for this night of celebration. This event could never have taken place without the persevering hard work and cooperation of so many. I especially congratulate Mr. Patrick L. O'Malley, the Executive Committee, the Committee of One Hundred, and all the parishioners and friends of Holy Name Cathedral for their untiring productive efforts.

The Cathedral was built one hundred years ago, by a small group of people who believed in their Church and the future of Chicago. As we begin our second hundred years of service to the city, it is our hope that all of you will join us in our prayerful effort to make God and faith important in the lives of our city and its citizens.

My heartfelt thanks to all who made this night come true.

Wishing you God's blessing,

Timothy J. Lyne

PLEASE DON'T SHOOT
THE SEATING COMMITTEE

Committee work becomes less sweet
When someone squawks about his seat.
We'd like to mention it's a task
To please you all just as you ask.

We pray for the day when some inventor
Will plan a ballroom — ALL DEAD CENTER.
In short, a room so well designed
All seats IN FRONT and NONE BEHIND.

Please believe we really tried
To keep you all well satisfied.
We tried to do our very best
To please YOU — our HONORED GUEST.
